

The SDAR Affiliate Program

One of SDAR's goals is to keep our members abreast of the latest products and services, and by doing so, increase their productivity and professionalism. Forming a partnership with you will facilitate this goal and provide you with exposure to the 1750 REALTORS® across the state of South Dakota.

For over 50 years, the South Dakota Association of REALTORS® has united businessmen and women for a common purpose - to have a strong collective voice in decisions affecting the real estate profession. And as practitioners of related industries, you, too have no doubt benefited from our efforts. As an SDAR affiliate, those benefits can be expanded.

Benefits of Affiliate Membership

Affiliate members have access to programs and services available to SDAR's member REALTORS®.

Affiliate members benefit from SDAR's Legislative Monitoring of activities in the State Legislature to advance and protect the real estate profession and real property rights.

Affiliate members receive SDAR's quarterly newsletter, REALTOR® Highlights, which provides timely information, news; highlights on SDAR activities and a unique networking opportunity through advertising your companies products and services.

Affiliate members can network with those you work with most often! Your built-in source of business leads and prospects, work with REALTORS® in their Association and your time and effort will be rewarded through increased contacts and potential business be recognized for outstanding service to the local REALTOR® organization.

Affiliate members also may attend SDAR's educational seminars; meetings; conferences and convention programs...the only thing affiliates don't get is the name REALTOR® which is limited to our member real estate professionals.

As you can see, the value of SDAR Affiliate Membership is tremendous, and well worth the annual membership fee, giving you access to great products and services that can strengthen your marketing efforts within your real estate markets.

After reviewing this brochure, simply contact one of the Local REALTOR® Boards listed below to complete your application for membership...And start receiving your SDAR Affiliate benefits today!
